

The Tutor

DAVID PRICE A.L.C.M., a lifelong jazz musician, successful band leader and banjo player of universal distinction, has many television and radio appearances to his credit. His extensive knowledge, humour and audience rapport have given his appearances and courses widespread appeal.

The Venue

Exchange House, Blackmore, built in 1954, was originally a telephone exchange, later converted to a residence. Recently, the property has been extended to incorporate a beautiful purpose-built concert room with stage, lighting, great acoustics, warm atmosphere and seating for up to forty persons. We intend to run interesting, mainly music courses and promote the occasional concert - perhaps a jazz guitarist or harpist, cellist or whatever YOU the members would like.

EXCHANGE HOUSE Music Club

Day Courses
Weekend Courses
Concerts
Lectures

The Exchange House Music Club is a private club offering courses and concerts at competitive rates. Membership is FREE! It is new and innovative and will appeal to anyone with an interest in music. Come and meet like-minded people. Contact us about free membership.

GREAT RECORDINGS & FILMS

The day will consist of interesting lectures interspersed with great recordings, hundreds of projected stills, and films to emphasise the material. A friendly, social atmosphere is guaranteed, no experience or prior knowledge is assumed or required to most events and all are invited to interact with the tutor. Learn about the jazz musicians' amazing lives, how to recognise them and exactly what each added to the genre - with many amusing anecdotes.

ONE DAY COURSES WITH LUNCH

We are starting with one-day courses and hope to feature weekend or 2-3 day courses soon. Each course will include morning coffee/biscuits, home cooked lunch, and afternoon tea/pastries all wonderfully prepared by resident hostess, Maralyn.
